

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Most citizens of the U.S. assume that
news related
programs are not biased nor
"editorialized".
Sinclair and other
stations like them
abuse the trust of the American people.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
